Old Business

- A. Farmers Market: Board Member Dempsey confirmed opening day will be Thursday June 3rd. Some returning vendors and some new ones including JD Dogs Truck. There will be no fee for Farmers Market allowing Agricultural Committee to be able to put money towards advertising signs or entertainment for Farm Day in September.
- B. Chairman Atwood was able to confirm the Farm Day entertainment is board. A request to the entertainment has been made if they prefer a Canopy or Pavilion scheduled for Sept 19th. All board members will reach out for some sponsorships and will advertise them by putting names on banners or flyers. Board Member Dempsey will reach out to Cousin Lobster for Farm Day as she will need to submit names of vendors soon. Chairman Atwood will find out exact submission required date for vendor's names.
- C. Ideas of possible art contest again in the late fall after Farm Day to allow submissions for indoor viewing; possible location for submissions can be posted in Library.

New Business:

- A. New master plan meeting took place recently. Chairman Atwood attended and Secretary Perkins was able to attend towards end of meeting. The meeting was the first public forum about improvements and policies and what direction the town wants to go towards in the next 10 years.
