

Medway Historical Commission Agenda

Wednesday, August 21, 2019, 7:30 p.m.
Medway Senior Center

Call to order; check attendance: Gene Liscomb, Cher Hamilton, Jeanne Johnson, Bruce Hamblin, Paul Russell, ~~Kathleen Hickey~~

I. Demo Applications and Property Questions

260 Village—no further communication from owner Anne Parr

81 Lovering Street (the old Wilson Farm) —demo application for barn. We must determine if it is historically significant to the town, and if so, schedule the required public hearing. Refer to report on site visit (at end of this agenda). Patrick and Michael Larkin may be present to discuss the barn and their plans for it.

These items may be taken out of order if we have guests or presentations to consider.

II. Consider minutes of June and July meetings

III. Treasurer's report (Gene)

IV. CPC report (Gene)

V. Updates on ongoing projects

A. Benches for Cemeteries honoring veterans: ordered. Maria Varrichione may attend the meeting to discuss bench for St. Joseph's Cemetery; her husband, Frank, is buried near the grotto, which Paul Russell thinks is a nice location for a bench.

B. Evergreen Cemetery update

Barbara noted: We received three submissions in response to our RFQ. The bidders are:

Public Archeology Lab, $10,550

Kathleen Kelly Broomer, $12,000

Martha Lyon Landscape Architecture, $13,000

Their proposals are very extensive; in at least one case, over 100 pages.

C. Old Town Hall Model discussion; did Paul have a chance to contact Dr. Mike Fitzpatrick, from Blackstone Valley High School, about the possibility of 3-D printing such a model rather than contracting with Matt Williston to build one? Should the project be dropped for reasons we discussed at our July meeting? (Mostly expense and permanent home for the model when it's not on rotating display)

VI. New Business

Oak Grove Zoning Task Force (Barbara Saint Andre) Would the Historic Commission be interested in hearing a presentation from the Task Force on the proposed zoning? Will they be here tonight for such a presentation? (Jeanne answered Barbara that we would be interested.)

VII. Adjourn; next meeting Sept. 4, Senior Center, 7:30 p.m.
