

A Candid Discussion with Lisa and Joshua Dieker: Celebrating your Strengths

Lisa Dieker, Ph.D. & Joshua Dieker

Please join Joshua Dieker in this presentation with his mother, Lisa Dieker, a professor in special education. They will share their personal journey with Tourette's Syndrome, dysgraphia, and dyslexia – from preschool to college. Join Josh and his mom as they provide practical advice as well as share their story through humor and heartfelt strategies - from the good, the bad, and at times ugly parts of life of being a parent or a person with a disability. Be ready to leave this session with lots of strategies and ideas to celebrate the good while considering how to create the best pathway to meet the challenges throughout your own personal journey whether you are a parent or young adult with a disability.
