”We are very excited to be able to fund a number of activities for all age groups this year, with a larger state allotment. We were able to fund everything from music to dance to theatre to painting and the humanities.” Stated Carla C. Cataldo, Chairwoman of the Medway Cultural Council. “There will be a funded activity in almost every month of 2020.”The Medway Cultural Council will post the schedule of events on its Medway Cultural Council (MEDCC) Facebook page and in local media. The Medway Cultural Council meets every other month to promote access, education, diversity & excellence in arts, humanities and interpretive sciences in order to promote the quality of life of Medway residents and to contribute to the economic vitality of the community.

The next grant round will be in October 2020, for fiscal year 2021. If you are interested in learning more about the Council, check out the town web page at https://www.townofmedway.org/cultural-council.
